THE HYPNOTIST.

Entertained and Amused a Large Audience Last Night.

Notwithstanding the fact that our city has heretofore seen a great deal of hypnotism, the Academy of Music was nearly full last night to see the mind-reading feats, which were all successfully executed, and Boone proved himself master of the science to the satisfaction of all.

The hypnotic part was similar to what we have all seen before and equally as funny, the subjects being made to believe they were in swimming, playing football, covered with ideas, etc.

At the conclusion of the exhibition one of the company was placed in a catastrophic state and buried in a grave in the Academy yard, to remain until this evening. He will be awakened on the stage at 8:30 tonight.

An entire change of program will be put on tonight, including an explanation or exposition of the so-called spiritualistic slate writing, growing of the Mango tree, etc.

Tremendous Hits.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 22.
T. J. McAdoo, Greensboro, N. C.

Dear Sir--It gives me the greatest pleasure to state that the "Fadettes Woman's Orchestra of Boston" is undoubtedly the peer of any organization of its kind in America today.

The "Fadettes" played two engagements in Knoxville within the last year, and both performances proved tremendous hits and drew crowded houses. Very sincerely,
C. Deneval Garret.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 12--The rear car of a westbound freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad jumped the track near Monmouth Junction, and blocked the eastbound track, and an eastbound freight crashed into the wreck. The engine was badly wrecked and the cars piled on top of each other.
Engineer Height and Fireman Huecker were killed. The road was blocked several hours.

ANOTHER TRAIN WRECKED.

New York, Dec. 12--A third freight train has run into the wreckage and been smashed up. Brakeman Zogbaum was mortally injured.

GEN. BROOK RECALLED.

Washington, Dec. 12--A report is current here that a telegram summoned Gen. Brook here. It is known that the president contended relating him early in January but Gen Orbison said this morning that no formal order to such effect has been issued.

WEALTHY MAN SUICIDES.

New York, Dec. 12--Stephen P. Anderson, a wealthy contractor, suicided by shooting himself through the head this morning, at his office in the Hamilton bank building.

MURDERER ARRESTED.

New York, Dec. 12--Martin Sweeney shot James Colover, night clerk at the Waverly hotel, a twenty-cent lodging house, because the clerk refused to let him and his companions have beds. Chief of Police Devery himself arrested the murderer this morning as he was bending over the body of his victim.

TO YOUR TENTS.

In the language employed by the idolized Vance, "To your tents, O Israel!" The time is short. The early state election next year rendered it necessary to call an early convention. This was done by the executive committee last night, and the convention will be held in Raleigh on April 11th.

And the time is now to get down to business. The enemy sleeps not, day nor night. Every man who loves the decent government given the state by the democratic party should buckle on the armor and step in line to the inspiring strains of the "Old North State Forever." Our home government means more to us than all things else, political.

We see it stated that at the next meeting of the legislature, which will be in June, the bill abolishing all criminal courts and increasing the number of superior court judges, will be again introduced, and its passage urged. We believe this bill should pass. It would make one step less in the trial of hard fought cases. As it is now appeals can be taken from the justice's to the criminal court, from the criminal to the superior court and from the superior to the supreme. Make the route shorter, and it would be a good idea to enlarge the jurisdiction of the justice of the peace, make his fees larger and look carefully to the selection of competent men to fill that office. This would save lots of time in the trial of petty offences.

Hon. J. M. Moody, a prominent republican, of Waynesville, states that Bellamy will be unseated and a new election ordered in the sixth district. And this in the face of the six thousand and majority cast for Bellamy over Dockery. We'll admit that it was an unmerciful beating, but it was not Bellamy's fault. If nearly all the people in the sixth district preferred him to Dockery, indeed, if the last mother's son of them had voted for Bellamy, we see no reason why he should not be entitled to his seat.

At the session of the North Carolina conference, just closed, a motion was unanimously adopted, providing that a memoir of W. H. Branson, who served so long and faithfully as chairman of joint board of finance, be prepared and published in the Conference. Our readers will distinctly recall the sad calamity which removed Mr. Branson from these earthly shores, on which no purer man ever set foot. His doings follow him and his brethren love and revere his memory.

The spiritualist, Dr. Schlesinger, who is at present "gulling the gullable" in Greensboro, it is said by responsible parties, claims there is no God, no heaven, no devil, no hell, and yet believes in spirits. How we prove these statements, we do not know nor care, but we do say that we believe such infamous business should not be tolerated in a civilized, Christian community.

The distribution of federal patronage is a strong lever. Our Baltimore letter today tells how a wide breach between the Maryland senators has been repaired by Drs. McKinley and Hanna in administering equal doses to each man.

LETTER FROM BALTIMORE.

Political Reconciliation—A Famine Which Affects the Rich.

Baltimore, Dec. 11, 1899.

Editor Telegram:

The past week in politics has been one almost totally devoid of interest. In fact, if we except one event, we can safely say it has been a dull and listless week on the political "change." That one event has much of significance in it—one that may have its effect on national politics—and easily compensate one for many another interesting political news. Senator Wellington, the "Duke," and Senator McComas have been reconciled. It was through the good offices and tact of Gen. Felix Agius and President McKinley that this was brought about.

From their entrance into politics the representatives of Maryland in the Senate have been at daggers' points and each one has been ever ready to give the other an unfriendly cut. Their petty jealousies have often been the cause of party misunderstandings and divisions. An open rupture occurred so late as the gubernatorial campaign, which ended last month.

The "Duke" was chairman of the state republican committee—in name at any rate. Senator McComas called a meeting of the committee without consulting the "Duke." When the committee met, the Duke appeared, asked some embarrassing questions, resigned, "cussed out" McComas and his followers, went home and began to issue prophecies of democratic victory in the coming state election. Now, however, these two irate gentlemen have become reconciled, McKinley and Hanna have given their official blessing to the union and the senators will henceforward work in perfect accord and unity.

It is not difficult to find what the president used to appease Senator Wellington's anger. The "Duke" did not have the sanction of either McKinley or Hanna upon his course and federal patronage was given to McComas to distribute. A promise from the president and endorsed by Hanna to allow the "Duke" an equal voice in distributing offices, healed the Duke's grievances.

McKinley may not be so successful in pacifying the Filipinos, but no one in the republican ranks in Maryland can complain of the effect of his soothing syrup in the state. By the way, would it not be a good idea for the president to offer Aguinaldo the sole distribution of patronage in the Philippines on condition he become "pacified?" But then Aguinaldo is not so highly civilized as the senior senator from Maryland and possibilities of unlimited power might not tempt him.

An unusual funeral is now prevalent in Baltimore and, unlike its proverbial predecessors, strikes terror to the hearts of the rich and does not affect the poor of the city. Go through all the departments, notion and whatnot stores and not a spool of white silk will you find. To the young society lady whose white dresses are unfinished and who has Christmas and New Year balls and receptions to attend it presents an alarming dilemma. The lines of dressmakers are not strewn with flowers, you may be sure.

Julia Arthur in her new play "More Than Queen" was here last week. The play is the most magnificently and handsomely staged spectacular performance that has probably ever appeared in Baltimore. Some idea of its magnitude may be gained when one considers that $50,000 was spent in preparing it before the curtain rose for its first appearance in New York. Miss Arthur's costumes were superb and her bearing as Josephine was more than queenly. Her coronation dress is trimmed with gold and weighs over eight pounds. Her other costumes—she appears in about seven different ones—are equally as handsome. Her support is excellent and, taken all in all, Baltimore is much pleased with Miss Arthur.

The democrats have been busy in planning work for the next state assembly. The idea of adding an educational qualification to suffrage is being discussed and is meeting with some favor. No one need be surprised if such an amendment will be passed. It is proposed to place the candidates' names alphabetically on the ballot and so make it necessary for the voter to be able to read before he votes for the candidate he wishes elected. This will be an innovation in the way of printing ballots and will probably secure the desired result.

MARRIED IN SALEM.

Capt. J. W. Harper and Miss Ellis Strupe.

This morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of the bride in Salem, Capt. John W. Harper, of Wilmington, was united in marriage to Miss Ella Strupe, Bishop Rendthaler officiating.

Capt. Harper is the princely commander and owner of the steamer Wilmington and is a deservedly popular gentleman. His boat is the pride of thousands of yearly visitors to the seashore. His bride is a charming and accomplished young lady of the delightful old town of Salem. We congratulate both, and wish for them long seasons and pleasant voyages extending through many years on the placid water of the lower Cape Fear before they steer across the dark river.

The writer remembers with pleasure the courtesies extended him by Capt. Harper last summer while attending the press convention at Carolina Beach. Miss Strupe, now Mrs. Harper, was there also, as beautiful and radiant as a sunbeam and as innocent as a lamb. Capt. Harper was looking younger than on former years, and we know not the cause. Cupid, the sly rascal, knew. We know now.

Storm in Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 11.—A storm which passed over this vicinity last evening demolished a church at Reynoldsville, a few miles out. The congregation had been dismissed only a few minutes before.

In Atlanta a falling stack at the water works broke the supply wire and compelled the shut down of all street car traffic for nearly an hour.

Commander Wood Dies of Typhoid

Washington, Dec. 11.—Commander E. T. Wood, U. S. N., died of typhoid fever at his residence in this city at 5 o'clock this morning. He was in command of the gun-boat Petrel, at the battle of Manila bay. He will be given a naval funeral at Annapolis, Wednesday.

A freight train was wrecked yesterday between Asheville and Spartanburg, S. C. The conductor was killed. The passengers on the train behind the wreck came by Statesville—Charlotte Observer.

FEMALE MAIL.

That sounds more contradictory than it is when you consider it is being a description of the largest mail received by any man in the United States exclusively from women. This "female mail" is received by Dr. R. V. Pierce, the celebrated specialist in women's diseases, and consulting physician to the Invicta Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

It is only fair to say that it is not the man that women write to, but the doctor. One of the remarkable features of this correspondence is that year after a cure has been effected, the women continue to write to Dr. Pierce, being anxious for health and for the kind and fatherly advice, which was blended with the physician's counsel, and which was so helpful in preserving the health when regained.

The offer of a free consultation by letter is extended by Dr. Pierce to every woman and ailing woman. Every letter received is read in private, answered in private and its contents treated as sacred confidence. The expense of third party postage, the correspondence, all expenses are mailed in a plain envelope bearing upon it no printing or advertising whatever. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invicta Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the great approved for female troubles, irritable, debilitating drains, inflammation and infection, is for sale by all dealers in medicine. Accept no substitute which may be recommended as "just as good" that the dealer may make a little extra profit.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

CARD FROM DR. BEALL.

Claistic Characterization of Dr. Stacey's Criticism.

The following letter appeared in this morning's "Charlotte Observer":

An article appeared in your Sunday issue, signed by Dr. E. L. Stacey, of this city, in which, assuming to speak for the public, and "especially the medical profession" of the state, he criticizes every one connected with the recent outbreak of fever at the State Normal College.

I do not propose to take up the cudgels for Dr. Lewis or Dr. McIver, as both of them are fully able to take care of themselves; but I wish to say a few words in behalf of the physicians who are in attendance on the sick students. I will say in passing that as soon as time permits, a full history of the epidemic will be written, and published for the information of the doctors of the state. Meanwhile the cases have been seen by a number of physicians from various parts of the state, the diagnosis confirmed, and the treatment approved.

Dr. Stacey has not seen a single one of the patients, has not asked a single question about cases of treatment of the physicians he criticizes, and, so far as I know, has not been on the college grounds since the first case of sickness occurred.

In view of these facts, I feel sure I voice the sentiment of every self-respecting physician in the state, when I characterize Dr. Stacey's criticisms as impertinent, unprofessional, and ungentlemanly. Yours truly,

W. P. Beall, M. D.
Greensboro, N. C., Dec. 11, 1899.

Lieutenant Brumby Very Ill.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The condition of Lieutenant Brumby, Admiral Dewey's flag lieutenant, changed for the worse late tonight. He became unconscious towards midnight and a consultation of the physicians was held and a telegram sent summoning a Baltimore physician, who is a specialist of fever of the kind from which the lieutenant is suffering. The patient is threatened with hemorrhages. Mrs. Jayday, a sister of the sick officer, is at his bedside.

ONLY A FEW DAYS.

Our Time is Up 16th. When We Will Close This Special Sale--That Means Business. If You Want Pianos at Wholesale Cost, Come and Get 'Em This Week.

$200 FOR TEN MINUTES OF YOUR TIME.

We must close this special sale of pianos on 16th. The pianos unsold will be promptly boxed and shipped from here, and those who are slow to appreciate a manufacturer's supplying individuals a piano at same price charged agents for the same goods will regret it when they attempt to buy of an agent or dealer in the regular way. If you care to save money you can save on an average of $200 for simply ten minutes of your time by calling at 217 S. Elm street this week. No canvassers, no collectors. Do you care to save all the above expenses besides the usual profit? If you do, come and see us, and if we don't carry out each and every statement made in our advertisements do not buy. If you buy and find we have not given you just as represented, do not pay for it, and to back it up we agree to sell you on monthly payments at same price that you would pay cash, except 6 per cent. interest, which amounts from 4 to 6 cents per month for each payment.

Pianos that usually sell for $480, $400, $375 are marked $284, $248 and $226.

Pianos are advancing. Any dealer will tell you they cost from $19 to $25 each, more this month than 60 days ago. We shall certainly offer none except at regular prices after this sale is closed. Come this week if you care to get in on the deal.

C. Jellison, Factor Agent, 217 S. Elm Street.

Open evenings.

If you have no other business there, stop in at Kaufman's and see those "you press the button, it goes the rest" umbrellas; also ask for a look at those Klondyke gloves. This may make you feel chilly, but no matter. And by the way, he has an extremely neat place and thousands of tasty things are peering at you from every crevice. If you are not too fastidious you ought to find plenty to please you.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Frank A. Brooks went down to Putnam today on business.

W. S. Kivett has gone on a three days' trip to Manchester.

Dr. Jno. Mitchell and the "Baptist Book Store" stopped at the Allen last night.

Read what the ad of Will H. Matthews & Co. says about a new suit for the holidays.

"The burning question" is answered in the new ad of Harry-Belk Bros. Company today.

Judge Farrar, of Baltimore, passed through the city this morning on his way.

Hudson on the Hill, in his ad this afternoon, tells hungry people where to buy "Good things to eat."

Next Friday will be the last bargain day until after Christmas at the store of J. M. Hendrix & Co. Read their ad today.

Dr. Hunter McGwire, a celebrated physician of Richmond, Va., was here last night to see a patient at the Normal and Industrial College.

Two of the trained nurses who have been employed at the Normal went to their homes today, one to Durham, the other to Baltimore.

The Moore Optical & Talking Machine Company great Telegram readers with a large space on front page. Read it and investigate for yourself.

The attention of Telegram readers is directed to Schiffman & Co.'s ad on the first page. His stock of jewelry is full and his prices are right. Engraving also neatly done.

Rankin, Chisolm, Stroud & Rees, the clothiers, are still selling clothing cheap. They have a change in their space in today's paper, to which your attention is directed.

The remains of Albert L. Currie, aged 18 years, who died in Fredericksburg, Va. Sunday, passed through here last night enroute to Burlington, where they were interred today.

Burning mattresses and bedding and other work of disinfecting has begun at the State Normal and Industrial College. The strongest and best germs are being used with a view to totally eradicating all infectious matters.

Capt. Z. B. Vance, a son of the lamented Senator Vance, is now in charge of the recruiting station here. Recruits are wanted for Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. The rumor that the office is closed here is untrue. If you feel patriotic enough to "shoulder a musket" call on Capt. Vance.

For Christmas presents, nothing could be more suitable than some of the articles pictured in the big ad of McDuffie, the big furniture store man. The prices are given, so you will not have to look over so many things to make up your mind what to buy. Choose from the ad. See penny column also.

Christmas Holiday Excursion Rates. For the above occasion round-trip tickets will be sold on December 22, 23, 24, 25, also December 30, 31, 1899, and January 1, 1900. Basis for rates, one and one third first-class standard way fare for round trip. Final limit January 4, 1900. Continuous passage in each direction.

HOLIDAY RATES FOR STUDENTS. Tickets sold to students and teachers upon presentation of certificates signed by the superintendent, principal or president, of schools and colleges, under the foregoing conditions on December 15th to Dec. 21st, 1899, inclusive, with final limit Jan. 4, 1900.

Any information desired apply to J. B. Graham, T. A.

"How's this?" demanded the irate purchaser, as he noted the absence of illuminating apparatus, "doesn't your prospectus distinctly state that during the past summer the entire town has been lighted by electricity?" Certainly, sir, and so it has," responded the suave agent of the Lonsomehurst Land Company. "Why, we've had as many as four thunderstorms in one week out this way."

Christmas! Christmas! Our stock is large and complete. The china department embraces fine goods both foreign and domestic. The toy department is one of the largest ever brought to this city--fine dinner plates especially for the holidays--invite everybody to call and look for themselves. E. M. Caldeleigh & Bro.

Firemen!

A regular meeting of the fire department will be held in the Firemen's hall on Tuesday, 12th inst. at 7:30 p.m.

Action will be taken on the report of the committee on the constitution and by-laws, so don't fail to attend.

By order of J. H. Phipps, Chief, E. L. Clarke, Secretary.

Rev. J. F. Sunderland, formerly pastor of the Unitarian church at Ann Arbor, Michigan, has received a call to a pulpit in London, England.

Very suitable Christmas gifts and useful all the year round our ladies' dainty house slippers, made with soft soles, and trimmed with satin ribbon bows. We have them now in all sizes, red, light blue, pink and tan, price only 75 cents. Our ladies' fur topped Romeo slippers are just the thing for cold weather. These come in red and black, all sizes up to 8, price $1.00. Thacker & Brockmann.
